District Judge

RE: Hernandez v. Goord et. al., 01 Cv 9585 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein;

Please pardon my intrusion and allow me a few moments of the Court's time. I am now writing to respectfully request that the Court setup a phone conference between the parties of this case.

As the Court is aware, that the Plaintiff in this case won a jury verdict against two New York State employees on or about May 9, 2014. Since then the defendants attorneys (The New York State Attorney General's Office) has refused to pay the amount as listed in the verdict.

The Plaintiff has written at least two letters to Mr. Neil Shevlin of the New York State Attorney General's Office. One dated April 20, 2016; and one dated March 31, 2016, requesting that the Plaintiff is paid the owed $38,002.00. Mr. Shevlin as of this date has not provided Plaintiff with a voucher for that amount. As a matter of fact, I have not received a response from Mr. Shevlin's office to the letters dated April 20, 2016, or March 31, 2016.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court setup a phone conference in this matter for June 3, 2016, or perhaps the following week June 6, 2016 thru June 10, 2016. Which ever date is most convenient for the court. This request is in order to bring closure to this case that has been long an over due.

Please respond to this line of communication to deny or confirm this request.

In conclusion, thank you in advance for your time, attention, and all considerations in the above mentioned matters.

Respectfully

Mr. Juan Hernandez
